SMALL HOLDERS ACTIVE

PLANT SUGAR CANE AT MAULUA GULCH.

Kona Forging Ahead in Road Improvement and Coffee Cultivation—Mr. Townsend's Trip.

The Inspector General of Schools, who has just returned from a three months tour of the Island of Hawaii, has much to say that is interesting concerning the improvements, both public and private which have been going on.

"On the windward side of the Island," says Mr. Townsend, "roads are completed from Hilo and Honohina.
One can also drive comfortably from Laupahoehoe into Kohala. There is a great development of sugar cane cultivation between Maulua gulch and the old Honohina plantation. Some hundreds of acres of cane are already planted by small holders. The cane will be ground at the Hakalau mill When the homesteads at Maulua are thrown open there will be a great deal more cane planted. All the lower homesteads will be planted in sugar and the upper in coffee.

"I noticed remarkable development in the agricultural and coffee regions in the Hamakua district.

"In Kona the most notable thing was the road improvement. A good driving road now extends from Mc-Guire's ranch to Napoopoo and road work is progressing which will connect these roads in the region of Hookena. A drive from Huihui to Honomalino will then be possible. The surveyor's marks are visible clear to Kahuku.

"Great areas of land are being planted in coffee. The crop is good.
Kona has had a very rainy season, which is unprecedented. The trees are growing well and there will be a great deal of new wood for next year's crop.

"While passing through Kau district I saw some of the heaviest lad-ened coffee trees it has ever been my pleasure to gaze upon. These trees were growing in a protected spot on C. Meinecke's place at Waiahina.
There were some 600 trees in all. Back of Kila, on John Searles' place, I found a very choice coffee plantation.
"Kau has had a terrible draught, but is thoroughly broken now. The sugar plantations suffered a little.

"I saw very little of the coffee fields in Olua, but the people whom I met were all confident that Olua was the proper place. Some large drying houses are going up in anticipation of the crop now on the trees. The estimates of the crop seem too good to believe.

"In Puna I found the road work going on there. There is now a good driving road for a distance of nineteen miles into the district. This is an excellent road. Work to connect this with the old Ryeroff road is progressing rapidly and it will not be long before there will be a road thirty miles in length.

"Coffee out in Puna district is looking fine. The crop, it is said, will be good, in the region of Kamailli and Pa-hoehoe. The coffee is older at Pahoa, much of it being on the Catholic mission lands. Goudie Brothers have some excellent trees. C. L. Wight, Lita Wilder, Harry Ryeroff and others have excellent coffee in Kamailli."
